2021 Honorees

Margaret Blohm is a senior public relations consultant and founder of Margaux & Associates, LLC. Margaret has a longtime commitment to helping women advance their education, careers and businesses while serving in leadership roles for a variety of nonprofit organizations.

Kristin Bull is serving her third consecutive term as President of the Rochester Community Schools Board of Education. In addition to her volunteer role in the community, she is part of the leadership team at Crain's Detroit Business, where she leads the Events and Content Marketing teams as Director of Program Content.

Cindy Cirar is a community philanthropist who established the Assistance League of SE Michigan in 1994. Assistance League is 100% volunteer with no paid staff. Today, the membership totals 285 women who are dedicated to serving children, adults, and seniors in our community.

Dr. Ashelin R. Currie is a literacy advocate, consultant, and leader who strives to make the world a better place by working with and motivating others to learn, grow, and be passionate about reading and writing. She recently birthed her own nonprofit We Love Lit! to integrate literacy in children's everyday lives by working with families and communities.

Jennifer Dutch is the National Director of Humble Design, Inc. Humble Design is a nonprofit that changes lives and communities by furnishing the homes of families and veterans emerging from homelessness.

Vilija Idzelis-Wlosinski is a Program Coordinator with more than 10 years of experience in the health care field, developing and executing educational workshops regarding chronic disease self-management and disease prevention. She is an innovative health and wellness professional with career history in assembling, training, and leading volunteer teams to conduct effective program sessions and teach methods in managing chronic health problems.

Suzanne Levine is currently the Executive Director of the Greater West Bloomfield Chamber of Commerce where she supports local entrepreneurs by connecting them to beneficial community partners. A few of her networking groups that help businesses include: W.I.N. (Women's Inspiration Network), B.I.G. (Business Innovation Generator), Senior Resource Group, and Connect with an Expert.

Kathy Losinski is the Executive Director of Neighborhood House, a local human services agency seeking to improve the lives of financially burdened citizens by delivering tools aimed at removing barriers to self-sustainability.

Dr. Suzanne Merkle is a board-certified Dermatologist who began volunteering at the Gary Burnstein Community Health Clinic in 2018 and thoroughly enjoys taking care of the wonderful patients as well as interacting with the dedicated staff and other volunteers.

Kristina Millman-Rinaldi is Detroit Dog Rescue's Executive Director. She has been changing the face of animal welfare in Detroit for well over a decade. The nonprofit organization is Detroit's first and only no-kill shelter, which finds homes for neglected dogs and animals who are victims of violent crimes.

Tracey Proghovnick has worked with older adults for over 25 years of which the last 22 have been at Jewish Senior Life where she is the Director of Residential Marketing and Community Relations. At Jewish Senior Life, Tracey fulfills her passion to advocate for older adults.

JoAnne Purtan can be heard waking up Detroiters as part of "Mornings with JJ & JoAnne" on 104.3 WOMC. JoAnne has always been passionate about giving back to the community. She serves on the Board of Directors of New Day Foundation for Families, a nonprofit dedicated to relieving the emotional and financial burden on cancer patients and their families.

Madiha Tariq is the Deputy Director at the ACCESS Community Health and Research Center and oversees health promotion and disease prevention programs including substance abuse, infectious disease prevention, maternal and infant health, and refugee health and wellness programs. Ms. Tariq leads a team that advocates for improved and equitable access to health among underserved communities.

Esteemed Women Sponsorship/ Recognition Levels

Your gift supports high-quality, compassionate healthcare at no cost to adults who are uninsured or underinsured. You help these individuals take charge of their health so they are better able to take care of themselves and their families.

Your support turns Dr. Gary Burnstein's vision of a healthier community into a reality. Thank you.
